

Run Bug

by Roberto Perez-Franco G

The other day,
the weather was perfect. Flowers
and pollen, blue
sky, fresh
breeze... it was a 'Perfect 10'
Spring day.

Then, the next day, it was so hot that tons of people were taking sunbaths
in the grass... a
warm midsummer
day.

And a couple of days later, it is so cold again that I can see steam
coming out of my breath, and my hands hurt... like
late Fall or early Winter again.

I warned you: Cambridge has four seasons.

Yeah, but all
four seasons in the same week?
Come on!
