

Run Bug

Hey, Buddy! That's some mighty parka you have on. Why are you dressed like that?

I thought it would be freezing today.

Ever heard of this thing called 'weather forecast'?

I don't trust it. A few days ago, it said 31 degrees or so...

... "just like home", I said. So I dressed in shorts and went out. I almost froze to death!

Ever heard of the Fahrenheit scale?
